The Lost Cause of the Confederacy, or simply the Lost Cause, is an American historical negationist ideology that holds that, despite losing the American Civil War, the cause of the Confederacy was a just and heroic one. The ideology endorses the supposed virtues of the antebellum South, viewing the war as a struggle primarily for the Southern way of life or "states' rights" in the face of ...

World History for Us All is a comprehensive model curriculum for teaching world history in middle and high schools

World History for Us All:

I don't know how many times I've had the Fortune 500 presented to me as Exhibit A by those who argue that it's time to give up on a 20th-century American idea. Forget about building great companies that endure, they tell me. One technology pundit cornered me at a conference and deemed the whole premise absurd in today's world: "We live in an era when nothing can be built to last.
